

WHO ARE WE?

PaceAware is a loosely coupled collection of peace groups in Southern New Mexico. We organize Teach_Ins, Interfaith Symposiums, and Vigils for Peace. We operate a listserv (peace@nmu.edu), a website (PeaceAware.com), and a discussion board (groups.yahoo.com/group/PeaceAware).

Our mission is to serve the PeaceAware community of New Mexico by providing spaces for dialog where voices for peace can be heard and our community creates peaceful options. Our vision is to create a world where peace reigns and people are aware of options to war. We engage in activism, not protest. Activism seeks to bring change through action steps. Protest is yelling; activism is listening and dialog. Our common value is commitment to peace and non_violence. These are our values:

PeaceAware

- is "Respecting all Life."
- is acting with AWARENESS.
- is BEING AWARE of PEACE.
- is Voices Speaking_Out for PEACE.
- is being able to Visualize a Peaceful World.
- is non_Violence (Ahimsa) and Reverence for all life.
- is BEING AWARE of the consequences of the War Machine.
- is the way we approach our lives, our food, other beings, and our environment.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

It is urgent we stand up and speak out now. Please, if you've ever thought about making your opposition known, NOW IS THE TIME! War in the Middle East is NOT the way to fight global terrorism; it will only make it worse.
See Peaceaware.com for action ideas. See updated information at www.PeaceAware.com

ZIANET states that since the day the war began, PeaceAware's website is inaccessible due to a hard drive crash. They've had to find another place to post information on activities and the latest news. On march 26 we moved to our new home and all is well.
